

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the United States of America has given to its people more individual freedom and liberty, the highest standard of living, the best opportunities for an education, the highest wages, shortest hours and most benefits to the working man, with unlimited opportunities for personal advancement, and
- WHEREAS, our Constitution, with its representative form of government, gives to all citizens the right of free assembly, freedom of speech, press, choice and practice of one's religion, and
- WHEREAS, America, under our Free Enterprise system because the greatest economic and military power in the world, and
- WHEREAS, our Constitutional Republic form of government guarantees the inalienable rights of each individual to own property, to be secure in his own home against searches and seizures, to choose through the ballot their representatives in local, state and national government, and
- WHEREAS, the observance of United States Day on October 23 has become an established custom in many communities throughout the length and breadth of our land,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Monday, October 23, 1967, as

"UNITED STATES DAY"

in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to reaffirm their allegiance to the United States of America and rededicate their lives to the support and maintenance of the Constitution upon which it is founded.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eleventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-seven, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.

GOVERNOR STATE OF MINNESOTA

DEPARTMENT OF STATE

FILED

OCT 11 1967

SECRETARY OF STATE

19399

Secretary of State