

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, good will among men attains no greater unity and no finer expression than in the spirit of Christmas, and

WHEREAS, the traditional symbols of Christmas, publicly displayed, evoke in all citizens of all races and faiths a sense of warm fellowship and friendship, and

WHEREAS, the Lions Club of Saint Cloud, Minnesota, has resolved for this Christmas season of 1967 to achieve the display of a Christmas Wreath on every residence and household in their community, and

WHEREAS, good citizens of Saint Cloud will join in the citywide display, not only as a unique civic demonstration, but will simultaneously contribute funds to support the extensive program of special education and assistance for the visually-handicapped in Saint Cloud, and

WHEREAS, this exemplification of both the Christmas spirit and community spirit merits the admiration and emulation of all Minnesotans,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim December 9, 1967, as in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to display this symbolic wreath at every door.

"WREATH CAPITOL" DAY
