PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, teachers, in cooperation with the community and the country as a whole, are engaged in shaping a world of discovery and change, and

WHEREAS, education is the basis for determining the future of a free society and for adapting to the complexities of modern life, and

WHEREAS, the importance of education today makes it imperative that our classrooms attract and retain the best possible teachers,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of April, 1968, as in Minnesota in order to recognize the responsibilities inherent in the teaching profession, to promote conditions that enhance the quality of education, and to acknowledge the achievements of the teachers of our nation.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol in the City of Saint Paul this twenty-ninth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.
