James R. Anderson
Secretary of State

PROCLAMATION

#1900

WHEREAS,

Minnesota is great for many reasons and one of them is its unparalleled transportation system with state roads, rail lines, waterways, pipelines and air routes to move goods and people quickly, safely and economically, and

WHEREAS,

Minnesota is strategically located in America's heartland and through it pass materials and products as agriculture and industry meet the needs of people throughout America and the world, and

WHEREAS,

millions of our citizens are employed in the various means of transportation and the wages paid to them by their carrier employers, and the taxes paid into the state treasury, play a major role in sustaining the economy of our state,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Johnson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 12 - 18, 1968, as

"TRANSPORTATION WEEK"

and Friday, May 17, 1968, as

Day

"DEFENSE TRANSPORTATION WEEK"

in Minnesota, in recognition of the vital services transportation performs from day to day in the efficient operation of this nation and state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.

Harold Johnson
GOVERNOR

James L. Anderson
