PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the United States Postal Service is the messenger and servant of all the people, and
- WHEREAS, the Postal Service is dependent for its proper function upon the skill and training of loyal postal clerks, and
- WHEREAS, by their devotion to duty, their loyalty and their integrity, postal clerks have earned the respect and admiration of all citizens of Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of August 12 - 17, 1968, as in Minnesota, and call upon all citizens of the State to join in observance of this week and do further commend all postal clerks in Minnesota and those delegates from the fifty states and including Puerto Rico assembled in the City of Lakes, Minneapolis, Minnesota, at their National Convention, for their dedicated service.

POSTAL CLERK WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this sixth day of May in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-eight, and of the State, the one hundred tenth.
