

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Minnesota is great for many reasons and one of them is its unparalleled transportation system with state roads, rail lines, waterways, pipelines and air routes to move goods and people quickly, safely and economically, and

WHEREAS, Minnesota is strategically located in America's heartland and through it pass materials and products in agriculture and industry meet the needs of people throughout America and the world, and

WHEREAS, millions of our citizens are employed in the various means of transportation and the wages paid to them by their carrier employers, and the taxes paid into the state treasury, play a major role in sustaining the economy of our state,

NOW THEREFORE, I, Harold L. Mondak, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of May 11 - 17, 1969, as

"TRANSPORTATION WEEK" and Friday, May 16, 1969, as

"DIVINE TRANSPORTATION WEEK"

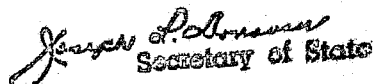

in Minnesota, in recognition of the vital services transportation performs from day to day in the efficient operation of this nation and state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-fifth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State, the one hundred eleventh.

GOVERNOR

SECRETARY OF STATE

20827
STATE OF MINNESOTA
DEPARTMENT OF STATE
FILED
APR 25 1969

Secretary of State