July 25, 1969

The Honorable A. M. Bullis
Judge of Probate, Juvenile & Municipal Courts
Center City, Minnesota

Dear Judge Bullis:

It is with deep regret that I accept your resignation dated July 8, 1969 as Judge of Probate, Juvenile and Municipal Court of Chisago County effective September 30, 1969.

You have served long and well and will be sorely missed in the Court of Chisago County.

Sincerely yours,

July 8th, 1969.

Honorable Harold LeVander,
Governor of State of Minnesota,
State Capitol,
St. Paul, Minn. 55101

Dear Governor LeVander:

Since February, 1942, I have served continuously as Judge in Chisago County, now more than 27 years. I passed my 71st birthday last April, born April 28th, 1898.

I desire to retire from my office as Judge under the provisions of, and benefits provided by, Section 490.12 of the Statutes, referring to retirement of Probate Judges, and I seek your assent, asking that same become effective as of midnite on September 30th, 1969.

If for any reason you would care to have me present myself to you in person, I should be glad to do so at your convenience.

Respectfully yours,

A. M. Bullis
