

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the State of Minnesota is proud of the many fine communities that have been built in recent years, and

WHEREAS, the available new homes and apartments represent improved planning and design and progress in the use of the new materials and methods of construction. In building these housing units, the home building industry has brought about the establishment of new communities, schools, churches, roads, shopping centers and other public facilities, and

WHEREAS, it is fitting that the citizens of Minnesota recognize that the building of thousands of new homes means in civic and economic progress to the State.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of September 14-21, as in Minnesota, and call upon the citizens of Minnesota to emphasize this week their appreciation of the value of better living through better homes and communities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twelfth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State, the one hundred twelfth.
