

PROCLAMATION

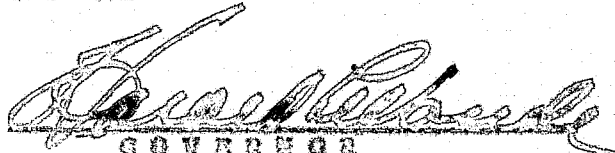

- WHEREAS, people everywhere, young and old, hope and pray for the day when World Peace will come about, and
- WHEREAS, our space achievements are dramatically making us conscious of the fact that earth in reality is but one country, and
- WHEREAS, the destructiveness of modern weapons of war and the many common problems we share make it imperative for mankind to learn to live together as one community, and
- WHEREAS, in America our youth and adults together must by example and leadership help raise the standard of peace in the world, and
- WHEREAS, the members of the Baha'i Faith of the State of Minnesota are joining in the national observance of World Peace Day, which this year is dedicated to the youth of the world,

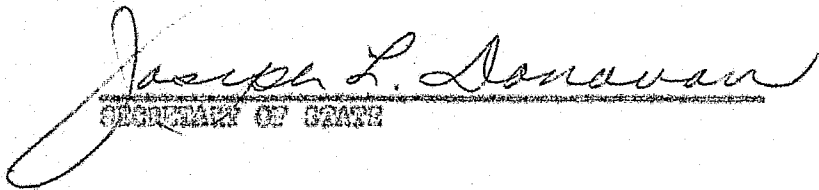

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Lowander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Sunday, September 21, 1969 as in Minnesota, in the fervent hope that the youth and adults in this State will be motivated to develop within themselves those attributes necessary for the attainment of peace and unity first in their local communities and eventually in the world community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twelfth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State, the one hundred twelfth.
