

PROCLAMATION

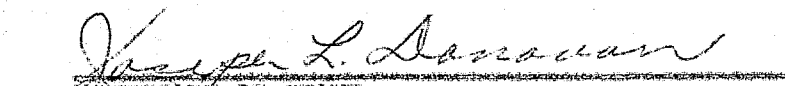

- WHEREAS, the pharmacists of the State of Minnesota are health professionals safeguarding and promoting the well-being of our citizens; and
- WHEREAS, these pharmacists give wholeheartedly of their time and talents to assure that pharmaceutical services and guidance are available to all; and
- WHEREAS, National Pharmacy Week, under the auspices of the American Pharmaceutical Association, will be observed nationally during the week of October 9-11, 1969, to direct public attention to the services and contributions of pharmacists, especially their drug abuse education and information activities; and
- WHEREAS, the pharmacists of our State are participating in this annual observance and public health efforts;
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Levander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 9-11 as,

NATIONAL PHARMACY WEEK

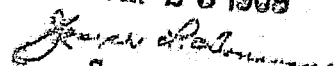

in Minnesota and urge all our residents to recognize this Week the services of our pharmacists, and to consult with them about safe and proper use of today's drugs and the dangers of drug misuse and abuse.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this 25th day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State the one hundred twelfth.
