

Oscar Acklund offered the following resolution and moved its adoption:

BE IT RESOLVED, By the village council of the village of Sandstone, in the County of Pine and State of Minnesota, that pursuant to resolution heretofore duly adopted ordering a special election, and pursuant to notice of such election duly given as provided by law, the question whether or not said village relinquish its then present charter and reincorporate under chapter nine (9), General Statutes of Minnesota for 1913, was, on the 9th day of March 1920, submitted to the voters of said village of Sandstone, and that as appears by the return of the canvassing board of said village, a majority of the votes cast at said election were in the affirmative, and that the result of said election was as follows, to-wit: forty-seven (47) votes for reincorporation and twenty-six (26) votes against reincorporation.

Trustee Gust Gertson seconded the motion, and the question being put, received a majority of the votes of the members of the village council and was duly carried, and was by the President then presiding, so declared.
