

PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS, the Miss Teenage American Pageant has been established to recognize the positive attributes of the American Teen-age girl--integrity, intelligence, wholesomeness, beauty and the promise of a positive role in shaping a better America in the future; and
- WHEREAS, each state has the opportunity to advance its most outstanding representative to compete for this high honor each year--this year on October 11--at the Minneapolis Public Library in Minneapolis; and
- WHEREAS, there is broad interest in this event because of the many communities represented among the lovely and personable contestants for this honor,
- NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold Leander, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 14, 1969, as

"MISS TEENAGE AMERICAN DAY IN MINNESOTA"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State, the one hundred twelfth.
