

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, working women constitute 20 million of the Nation's working force, and are constantly striving to serve their communities, their states, and their Nation's civic and cultural programs, and

WHEREAS, major goals of business and professional women are to help create better conditions for business women through the study of social, educational, economic and political problems, to help them be of greater service to their community, to foster friendship with women throughout the world, and

WHEREAS, all of us are proud of their leadership in these many fields of endeavor,

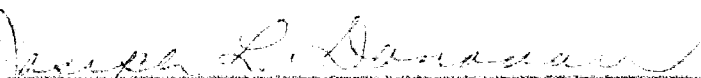

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim the week of October 19-25, 1969, as

and urge all citizens in Minnesota, all civic and fraternal groups, all educational associations, all news media and other community organizations to join in this salute to working women by encouraging and promoting the celebration of the achievements of all business and professional women as they contribute daily to our economic, civic, and cultural purposes.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and sixty-nine, and of the State, the one hundred twelfth.
