WHEREAS, the very existence of humankind depends to a large extent on education and the performances of its practitioners; and

WHEREAS, the vocational competence of everyone as well as his creativity and intellectual self-reliance are developed by education; and

WHEREAS, America needs well-prepared, dedicated professional teachers who will prepare our people for the demands of an age that will surpass all others; and

WHEREAS, teachers of our sovereign state as well as those of the nation are thus in a position to deeply affect the public and personal welfare of the nation and its citizens; and

WHEREAS, for these and other good and sufficient reasons it becomes incumbent upon the citizenry to attract and retain the flower of our youth for the profession of teaching;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Harold LeVander, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the Month of April, 1970, as in Minnesota, in order to acknowledge publicly the importance of teachers and the tasks they accomplish and to assist in providing the public support that is mandatory if they are to continue in this task.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy, and of the State, the one hundred twelfth.

Harold LeVander
GOVERNOR

James L. Donovan
