

To amend Section 235 of the Charter of the City of St. Paul by adding thereto the following:

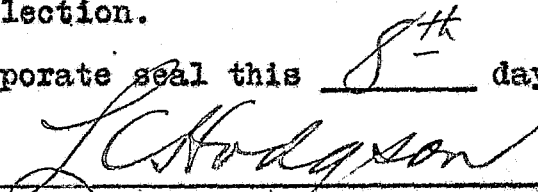

"Provided further, that the amount which may be assessed against abutting property for paving any street, boulevard, parkway, or other highway shall not exceed the cost of a strip of such pavement twelve feet wide adjacent to the property, thus assessed. The cost of the pavement, over and above the amount assessed against all property benefited, shall be paid out of city revenue or from money raised by bond issue or both. Where a permanent pavement has once been laid and paid for, in whole or in part, by special assessment, such benefited property shall not again, for a period of fifteen years, be assessed for repavement or for repairing pavement."
