PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, services provided by Public Works Departments throughout the State of Minnesota are a vital part of our citizen's everyday life; and

WHEREAS, the cooperation and support of an informed citizenry is important to the planning and implementation of public works programs and systems; and

WHEREAS, the health, safety, and general well being of this state and its counties and cities are dependant to a large degree on the quality, efficiency and effectiveness of the facilities and services provided by our various Public Works Divisions;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 9 through May 15, 1971, as

and call upon all citizens to acquaint themselves with public works facilities and services, and recognize the important role played by the various Public Works Departments in our state.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one, and of the State, the one hundred thirteenth.
