PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, children and youth with special learning disabilities, who are of normal or potentially normal intelligence but are handicapped by a disorder in one or more of the basic learning patterns involved in understanding or in using language; and,

WHEREAS, the Minnesota Association for children with Learning Disabilities is a non-profit organization dedicated to the advancement of the education and general welfare of these children and youth; and,

WHEREAS, the third nation-wide conference on learning disabilities in Minnesota will be held in Minneapolis, November 18-20, 1971, under the sponsorship of the Minnesota Association for Children with Learning Disabilities.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of November 14 through 20, 1971, as in Minnesota, and urge all parents, citizens and physicians to focus their special attention on early recognition and appropriate education for those children and youth, so that they may develop to their full potential as contributing members of society.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-third day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-one, and of the State, the one hundred fourteenth.

Wendell R. Anderson
