

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF MISSISSIPPI
MEMPHIS, TENNESSEE

State of Mississippi, et al.,
Plaintiffs,
vs.
Attorney General of the State of Mississippi,
et al.,
Defendants,
-vs-
Ralph H. Gamble, et al.,
Intervenors.

No. 4-72-157, 158

ORDER

Pursuant to the command of the United States Supreme Court, this Court hereby orders that:

1. The State be immediately apportioned by this Court into sixty-seven Senate districts and one hundred and thirty-four House districts;
2. The criteria to be used in this apportionment shall be those set out on our previous Order of November 23, 1971;
3. Parties, intervenors and amici curiae are given until May 17, 1972 to submit to this Court plans of apportionment and comments relating thereto;
4. The Court anticipates that it will file its order and plan of apportionment no later than June 6, 1972;
5. As a part of its order and plan of apportionment, the Court retains the right to make such changes in state statutory provisions pertaining to the electoral processes as are necessary; see, Mississippi State Senate v. Beang, n.l., Nos. 71-1024 and 71-1145 (U.S., April 29, 1972);
6. Adam C. Brackenzidge, John S. Hoyt, Jr., and Joseph W. [Name], III are again designated as Special Masters to aid the Court in apportioning the State;

7. The provisions of the Act of July 22, 1917, Minnesota, which relates to the State of Minnesota, were amended by the action of the Supreme Court and the continuing obligation of the State of Minnesota. Costs incurred subsequent to the amendment will also be paid against the State of Minnesota.

State of Minnesota, of July 22, 1917.

FOR AND WITH THE APPROVAL OF THE SUPREME COURT.
