

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: baseball, since its inception in Cooperstown, New York, in 1839, has provided wholesome recreation and entertainment for many generations of Americans, and

WHEREAS: baseball is rightfully known as our national sport, and

WHEREAS: the Minnesota Twins and other teams in the American and National Leagues have given Minnesotans and citizens of this region the benefit of many years of great baseball, and

WHEREAS: spring training and the 1972 baseball season is about to commence

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell P. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby designate the week of January 17 - 21, 1972, as in Minnesota.

"MIDWINTER BASEBALL WEEK"

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventeenth day of January in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two and of the State the one hundred fiftieth.
