WHEREAS: women play a most important part in the insurance industry; and

WHEREAS: they are not only effective locally and statewide in related fields - fire prevention, safety, crime prevention, amongst many others, but they have also made themselves effective nationally; and

WHEREAS: the National Association of Insurance Women (International) now has a membership of more than 15,000; and

WHEREAS: these women deserve commendation and recognition for their outstanding accomplishments in this truly professional field;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 21, 1972 through May 27, 1972, as and urge our citizens to do honor to the women who are performing such important services throughout the insurance industry.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventeenth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two, and of the State the one hundred sixteenth.
