PROCLAMATION

- WHEREAS: It is fitting that we gain a better understanding of the role played by our nursing students in all phases of community life, and
- WHEREAS: the contribution to the health and well-being of our citizens made by the nursing student extends far above and beyond the confines of our hospitals, and
- WHEREAS: nursing as a profession offers many avenues of service as well as useful lifetime preparation in whatever capacity the nurse may be called upon to serve, and
- WHEREAS: there is a pressing need for greater numbers of qualified nursing personnel, a need which will continue to grow as medical services expand to meet the requirements of our increasing population and scientific and medical advances,

HON. WENDELL R. ANDERSON, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of April 3 - April 9, 1972

"NURSING EXCELLENCE WEEK"
