PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: in the system of governing any people, the judiciary is the bulwark against intrusion upon our freedoms, and

WHEREAS: the success of the judicial processes depends, not only upon the brilliance and unswerving loyalty of its judges, but also on their total integrity, and

WHEREAS: Judge Leonard A. Keyes' career on the bench exemplified all of the highest traditions that could be aspired to by any people for their judiciary, and

WHEREAS: Judge Leonard E. Keyes has served as an outstanding District Judge of this state for a period of 39 years and as a Probate and Municipal Judge for 10 years before that, and

WHEREAS: Judge Leonard A. Keyes is retiring from this lifetime of service on April 21, 1972, and

WHEREAS: it is appropriate to designate a day in commemoration and in honor of this service that has been so unselfishly given,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota do hereby proclaim April 21, 1972 as to honor, not only the judiciary, but the man who has exemplified the finest traditions of the judicial system.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of April in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two and of the State, the one hundred fifteenth.
