

EXECUTIVE ORDER NO. 41

Providing for the establishment of a Swine Brucellosis Advisory Committee.

I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, by virtue of the authority vested in me by the Constitution and applicable statutes, hereby issue this Executive Order:

WHEREAS, state government must be responsive to the needs of its citizenry; and,

WHEREAS, Minnesota ranks fifth among all states in swine population; and,

WHEREAS, the eradication of swine brucellosis is a desirable goal.

NOW THEREFORE, I order:

1. The establishment of the "Governor's Swine Brucellosis Eradication Advisory Committee".
2. That this committee shall consist of twenty members, ten being active pork producers, five being swine oriented veterinary practitioners, one being a representative of the press, one being a representative of the South St. Paul Union Stockyards, one being a representative of a slaughtering establishment, one being a member of the Livestock Sanitary Board, and one representing Public Health.
3. That this committee shall serve at the pleasure of the Governor.

This Order shall be effective on date of signature.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I hereunto set my hand on this ^{8th} day of September, 1972.
