PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Alan Page was selected as the National Football League's Most Valuable Player in 1971, and

WHEREAS: Alan is the first defensive player in the 50-year history of the NFL to receive the League's highest award, and

WHEREAS: Alan epitomizes the ideal of sportsmanship and brotherhood, qualities he has demonstrated on and off the football field, and

WHEREAS: Alan has contributed greatly to our state through his work with youth, United Fund, YCOIC and in many other fields of endeavor, and

WHEREAS: All Minnesota is extremely proud to have Alan Page as a citizen of our State and as a member of the Minnesota Vikings,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 18, 1972 as in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this eighteenth day of May in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two, and of the State, the one hundred and sixteenth.
