PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Minnesota high school coaches work with thousands of youth each year to help them reach maturity and become better citizens, and

WHEREAS: many of our finest athletes would not have reached their current levels of performance or their full potential without the aid of the men and women who coach them, and

WHEREAS: these coaches are fully trained professionals in their field who help to instill confidence, teamwork and discipline, and

WHEREAS: a healthy spirit of competition combined with the ability to both win and lose gracefully are characteristics given our youth by their coaches,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby declare October 6, 1972 as and urge all interested groups and organizations to observe that day with appropriate ceremonies and activities.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two and of the State, the one hundred fiftieth.
