- WHEREAS: Twenty-seven years ago, on October 24, 1945, the United Nations came into being; and
- WHEREAS: the General Assembly of the United Nations called for the annual observance of October 24th as United Nations Day, to be devoted by all Member Nations to making known to the people of the world the aims and achievements of the United Nations and to gaining their support for the work of the United Nations; and
- WHEREAS: the President of the United States each year officially proclaims December 24th as United Nations Day in the United States; and
- WHEREAS: the United Nations was created to maintain peace in the world, based on the respect for the principles of equal rights and self-determination of peoples, to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights, and to raise the standard of living for all men - purposes which the United States of America wholeheartedly supports; and
- WHEREAS: the ultimate success of the United Nations depends upon the support of an informed public which recognises the achievements and benefits derived from our national participation in the United Nations and which understands both the problems and potentials of the United Nations; and
- WHEREAS: the citizens of this community, acknowledging that the highest ideals and aspirations of this country are closely allied to the hopes and aims of peoples everywhere, share the national commitment to the spirit of the Charter of the United Nations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Tuesday, October 24, 1972 as

and call upon all citizens of Minnesota to observe that day in the spirit of common purpose expressed in the United Nations Charter.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twentieth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-two and of the State, the one hundred fifteeneenth.
