

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS: Harvey and Gladys Hammergren have given the best years of their lives to the City of Alexandria, and to that city's future; and

WHEREAS: the work of Harvey Hammergren as manager of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce and in many other civic endeavors has contributed directly and importantly to making Alexandria one of Minnesota's most progressive and thriving cities; and

WHEREAS: Harvey Hammergren's ever optimistic fishing reports from Vikingland, his thwarting of the seizure of Big Ole by a large and forbidding foreign presence, the Minnesota Vikings, and his loving guardianship and promotion of the Kensington Runestone has caused his adopted city to acquire a second name, that of Harveyville;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim, Friday, March 30, 1973, as in Minnesota, and urge all citizens to reflect upon the accomplishments of Harvey and Gladys Hammergren, and renew their dedication to their own communities in the spirit that is recognized on this day.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirtieth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State, the one hundred and fifteenth.
