

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: the Twin City Society of X-Ray Technicians met on March 8, 1938 to accept the Bylaws and Constitution of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists. The purpose of this meeting was to establish all affiliated societies of radiologic technologists under a uniform foundation; and
- WHEREAS: a committee of registered radiologic technologists met to formulate definite plans regarding organization of the Minnesota Society on September 8, 1938. The Committee then met for organization in November, 1938 at the home of Alfred Greene, R.T. (ARRT) to make plans for the first meeting; and
- WHEREAS: the new Minnesota Society of Radiologic Technologists, formerly, the Minnesota Society of X-Ray Technicians embraced the Twin City Society of X-Ray Technicians and the Arrowhead Society with 47 members, on December 10, 1938; and
- WHEREAS: On December 10, 1938 the Minnesota Society of Radiologic Technologists, formerly organized to become recognized as an affiliate society of the American Society of Radiologic Technologists; and
- WHEREAS: the 1800 Registered Radiologic Technologists of the State of Minnesota have recognized the need for continued professional growth and education in the exchange of technical information to better the patient care; and
- WHEREAS: the dedication of these people has stood in testimony of their concern for improved patient care through radiation protection, continuing education and need for exchange of information for thirty-five years;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of September 25 through September 30, 1973 to be in honor of the dedicated technologists who live and work in our State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this thirty-first day of August in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State the one hundred and fifteenth.
