

Proclamation

WHEREAS: in 10 years with the Minnesota Vikings, Karl Kassulke was instrumental in helping to establish the Vikings as one of the most formidable powers in the National Football League; and

WHEREAS: while with the Vikings, Karl Kassulke gained the respect and admiration of thousands of citizens in the Minnesota region for the unstinting generosity with which he devoted his time and talent to helping others; and

WHEREAS: Karl Kassulke, in all of his endeavors off the field of play, has acted with warmth, humor and compassion for his fellow man; and

WHEREAS: Karl Kassulke has met misfortune with rare courage and spirit, and has earned a special place in the hearts of the people of Minnesota; and

WHEREAS: as a football player and as a man, Karl Kassulke will remain one of the best loved Vikings through his years on this earth;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim November 25, 1973 as in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this ninth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State the one hundred and fifteenth.
