

Proclamation

WHEREAS: November is traditionally the "month of plenty" and is climaxed by the national celebration of Thanksgiving; and

WHEREAS: the feast of Thanksgiving, however, is not known to all Americans, nor to two-thirds of the world's population; and

WHEREAS: Meals for Millions, a non-governmental Foundation, is successfully utilizing free enterprise methods to help starving people throughout the world feed themselves on a self-sustaining basis; and

WHEREAS: this Foundation shows developing countries how to create, process and distribute their own high protein foods using their own raw materials, capital and manpower; and

WHEREAS: a widespread educational program has been initiated by Meals for Millions obtaining the assistance of civic, educational, medical and religious leaders within a community to encourage the use of the multi-purpose foods in schools, hospitals and orphanages as well as through normal commercial market channels; and

WHEREAS: Meals for Millions' educational program of self-help for the starving people of our globe is one of the finest agencies in the humanitarian task of alleviating hunger;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the month of November, 1973 as in Minnesota.

MEALS FOR MILLIONS FOUNDATION MONTH

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this nineteenth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-three and of the State the one hundred and fifteenth.
