Fronk H. Putnen, first being duly scorn, deposes and says that he is a recident of the City of Minneapolis and County of Honnepin. That for many years prior to Jonuary 14, 1881, he was employed under a contract with United Autographic Register Company. a corporation foreign to the State of Linnesota, having ito principal place of business in Chicago, Illinois. That enong other things he sas employed to colicit orders for autographic registers, typewritor attechments and general supplies therefor in the State of Minnesota. That the said Autographic Register Company soli some of its registers outright and that in various instances said company did not sall such registers outright, but rented the same to various of 1to oustomers in the State of Minnesota, recerving the title thereto in itaelf, collocting rents for the use of the same, taking the Enchines up for itself from time to time from its various anstomers. the said Autographic Register Company paroued the came course of business in its dealings with respect to various typewriter attachments, placing the same out with its oustoners aho purchased supplies for the same from the Company, but reserving title to the amohines in itealf and collecting rents therefor, or in cortain instances leaving oald attachments with its quetomers free of any rental charge, upon the condition, however, ther eads outtomers should purchase from the Company supplies and materials for use in such attachments.

That said course of business so carried on by United Autographic Register Company was followed during the year 1920 and this affiant is informed and believes is still being followed by said United Autographic Register Company in the State of Minnesota.

Subscribed and sworn to before me
