Hon. Mike Holm,
Secretary of the State of Minnesota,
State Capitol,
St. Paul, Minnesota.

Dear Sir:

Pursuant to your advertisement for proposals for printing Minnesota Supreme Court Reports for the term of six years from and after October 1, 1921, according to specifications now on file in your office and including the delivery of 450 copies to the State, we beg to state that we will enter into a contract with the State for the performance of the work according to the specifications at the price of $2.75 per volume net at our office in St. Paul, Minnesota, and $3.10 per volume delivered elsewhere within the State of Minnesota. Delivery of the State copies is to be made to the document room of your department, or on your order at any place in the Capitol.

We are enclosing you herewith a certified check in amount of $2,000.00 as a guarantee that this company - a Minnesota corporation - will enter into the terms of the contract on the above basis, the amount of the certified check being the amount stated to us by your chief clerk as meeting the requirements of the occasion.

Very truly yours,

LAVALLEE LAW BOOK COMPANY.
