

Proclamation

- AS: the State of Minnesota is noted for providing a standard of living which encompasses both the dignity and the realization of accomplishment which all people seek; and
- AS: the State of Minnesota is continually increasing its efforts on behalf of the mentally handicapped of this state so that they too may achieve their deserved dignity and accomplishments; and
- AS: the people of the State of Minnesota realize that the rationality and morality of specialized instruction and care benefit everyone; and
- AS: private programs around the state work with and for state-funded organizations in attempts to aid the mentally handicapped; and
- AS: Minnesota Honey Sunday, sponsored by the Minnesota Jaycees, will raise funds for programs and facilities for the mentally handicapped throughout the state;

THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim April 14 - 20, 1975 as

HONEY SUNDAY WEEK

Minnesota, and urge the good people of Minnesota to support this and other programs in their state and their communities to aid the mentally handicapped.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twelfth day of March in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five and of the State, the one hundred and seventeenth.
