State of Minnesota,
Secretary of State,
Capitol Building,
St. Paul, Minn.

Dear Sir: You will please take note that, on March 11, 1922, I, Vernon M. Stowe, a citizen of Annandale, Minnesota, County of Wright, did file application with the General Land Office, Department of Interior, Washington, D.C. for the survey of island of about one acre in extent, in Clear Lake, in Sec. 7, T. 121 N., R. 27 W., 5th P.M., Minnesota; that the application is now pending in the said office; and that 30 days from the receipt of this notice are allowed in which to file in the said office any objections to the proposed survey which you may deem proper to submit.

Will you favor me by signing the enclosed receipt of this notice and by returning the receipt to me?

Very respectfully,
Vernon M. Stowe
