

Proclamation

WHEREAS: the need to focus attention on methods of improving administrative work is needed; and

WHEREAS: the leaders of government, business and education are concerned with this need; and

WHEREAS: improvement can be made through the use of new techniques and automated equipment; and

WHEREAS: the participation of these leaders and their staffs in education programs, seminars and exhibitions of new methods and equipment will enhance their capabilities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of May 11 through May 17, 1975 as in Minnesota, and call upon those professional societies, dedicated to better business management, to join with the Word Processing Association of Minnesota in bringing about an overall improvement in offices throughout the State of Minnesota in 1975.

OFFICE IMPROVEMENT WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this third day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five and of the State, the one hundred and seventeenth.
