

Proclamation

WHEREAS: A. L. (Bud) Gallop has represented his constituency with dedication and devotion; and

WHEREAS: during this representation he has exerted positive and superior leadership for the profession of teaching; and

WHEREAS: he always has met new challenges with effectiveness, thereby creating a better education climate for our citizens; and

WHEREAS: his influence has made a favorable imprint not only in our state but across the nation; and

WHEREAS: his wise and effective counsel invoked with courage, energy and indefatigable tenacity truly has been a powerful force for better education for a generation - nearly two decades of which he has been chief executive officer of the Minnesota Education Association;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim this day as in Minnesota, in order to recognize a person who has fought the good fight for education for a quarter century.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fourth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five and of the State, the one hundred and seventeenth.
