

Proclamation

WHEREAS: the United Nations was created on October 24, 1945 to maintain peace in the world, based on respect for the principles of equal rights, to reaffirm faith in fundamental human rights and to raise the standard of living for all men; and

WHEREAS: meetings of the United Nations in recent years have focused on use of the world's resources in a wise and fair manner, population control, the world food crisis, and efforts to preserve and protect our oceans; and

WHEREAS: 1975 marks the thirtieth anniversary of the United Nations and has been designated as International Women's Year; and

WHEREAS: it is a privilege and a pleasure to announce the appointment of Eugenie Anderson of Red Wing, former member of the United States delegation to the United Nations and this Nation's first woman ambassador, as 1975 United Nations Day Chairperson for Minnesota;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, October 24, 1975 to be in Minnesota, and call upon all officials of state and local government, civic organizations, educational institutions, and citizens to observe International Women's Year in recognition of the need to promote full equality of opportunity between men and women, and also to cooperate with the activities and observances arranged under the auspices of the United Nations.

FURTHERMORE, BE IT KNOWN that Eugenie Anderson has long been identified with the status of women, as well as national and international policies, and that Minnesota is fortunate indeed to have an individual with her courage, commitment and accomplishments as United Nations Day Chairperson for our State.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-seventh day of June in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five and of the State, the one hundred and seventeenth.
