

Proclamation

WHEREAS: Brigadier Hubert P. Amick has served for thirty-five consecutive years with the Salvation Army; and

WHEREAS: Brigadier Hubert P. Amick has, during that period, served his fellow man in a great variety of capacities - including community center programs, summer youth camps, the Boy Scouts, and homes for the indigent and chemically dependent, to name just a few; and

WHEREAS: Brigadier Hubert P. Amick has pursued special studies related to his concerns at the Civil Defense School Staff College, the University of Utah School of Alcohol Studies, the Salvation Army International College for Officers, and numerous national conferences, thereby enhancing his ability to minister to others; and

WHEREAS: Brigadier Hubert P. Amick, despite a full and extremely active career in the Salvation Army, has found time to be a loving husband and devoted father to two children, deriving great strength and inspiration from his family and his beloved wife, Ethel;

WHEREAS: Brigadier Hubert P. Amick, through his life's work, has exemplified the words of Christ when He said, "Inasmuch as you have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, you have done it unto me."

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby express to Brigadier Hubert P. Amick my admiration and appreciation for his ministry, and do proclaim Wednesday, July 17, 1975, to be in Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifteenth day of July in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and seventy-five and of the State, the one hundred and seventeenth.
