Office of Secretary of State
State Office Building
St. Paul, Minnesota 55155

Dear Sir:

Upon receipt of a petition signed by over 20% of the registered voters of the City of Birchwood, Washington County, Minnesota the City Council voted to place the following question before the voters in a Special Election held March 5, 1974:

"Shall the name the City of Birchwood be changed to City of Birchwood Village?"

The results of the election on this question were:

Votes YES	239
Votes NO	114
Spoiled or Blank Ballots	4
Total Ballots	357

At the City Council meeting held March 12, 1974 the enclosed Ordinance 34 was passed by the Council.

Based on information obtained from the League of Minnesota Municipalities we are submitting certified copies of the Ordinance to the County Auditor, the State Auditor and the Office of the Secretary of State.

It is our understanding that this is the required procedure to make the name change official. If there is any further action necessary would you please inform me of the steps required? Thank you.

Sincerely,

Karen A. Krahn
