

IMPERIAL CONSULATE OF JAPAN

329 PEOPLES GAS BUILDING

CHICAGO, ILL., U.S.A.

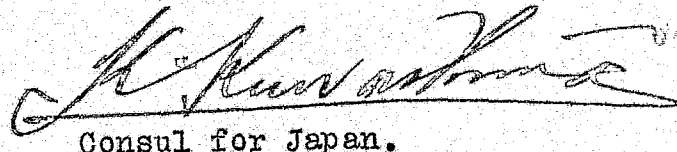

November 18, 1922.

Dear Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that having been recalled by my Government, I intend leaving Chicago for Japan on the nineteenth day of this month and further that Mr. Tanichiro Yoshida, Vice-Consul, will thereafter take charge of this consulate in the capacity of Acting Consul.

Hoping that you will show him the same courtesy and privileges as have been extended to me, I remain

Yours very respectfully,

Consul for Japan.
