

Proclamation

- WHEREAS: Ireland has historically shared some of its finest sons and daughters with the world; and
- WHEREAS: more than three million Irish men and women emigrated to the United States where they distinguished themselves in all facets of life; and
- WHEREAS: many of the Irish came to live in Minnesota where they enriched our State with their work, their wit and their wisdom; and
- WHEREAS: Irish Minnesotans have provided much of the zest and spirit of the Democratic-Farmer-Labor Party; and
- WHEREAS: the Irish American Cultural Institute honors Minnesota by having its headquarters in St. Paul; and
- WHEREAS: His Excellency, Dr. Eamonn Kennedy, has served Ireland with distinction during the past 25 years; and
- WHEREAS: Dr. Kennedy is currently Ireland's Ambassador Extraordinary to the United Nations;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim Friday, November 7, 1975 to be in Minnesota in honor of his first visit to our state, and confer upon him the title "Minnesotan".

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this seventh day of November in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-five and of the State the one hundred seventeenth.
