

Proclamation

- §: the first public television station in Minnesota was KTCA-TV inaugurated on September 3, 1957 in the Twin Cities; and
- §: since that time six more stations have been added, expanding the viewing area of public television to more than 95% of the state's population; and
- §: these stations have provided invaluable in-school service to more than 90% of the state's school children; and
- §: the University of Minnesota, the Private College Council, the State College System and other institutions of higher learning in the State of Minnesota have effectively utilized these services for the enhancement of education at the adult level; and
- §: through public television there is daily access to extraordinary programming in the arts, public affairs and specialized education;

HEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of March 7 as

PUBLIC TELEVISION WEEK

Minnesota, and urge all citizens to recognize the contributions made by KTCA-TV-2, Twin Cities; KFME-TV Channel 13, Fargo-Moorhead (1964); WDSE-TV Channel 8, Duluth (1964); KTCI-TV-17, Twin Cities (1965); KWCM-TV Channel 10, Appleton (1966); KAVT-TV Channel 15, Austin (1972); and Channel 2 Grand Forks (1974) to the enrichment of the quality of life throughout the State of Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this tenth day of February in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-six and of the State the one hundred eighteenth.
