

Proclamation

WHEREAS: the residents and visitors of the State of Minnesota enjoy clean and beautiful surroundings; and

WHEREAS: each generation must work to sustain the environment, otherwise, through carelessness and indifference, its beauty and cleanliness may be lost; and

WHEREAS: special efforts must be directed against litter pollution;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Wendell R. Anderson, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim May 10, 1976 as in Minnesota, and urge all our citizens to take extra effort on that day to beautify their surroundings by removing unsightly litter and to pay special attention to the advantages of a clean Minnesota.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twentieth day of April in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-six and of the State the one hundred eighteenth.
