

4/30-1933

Hon. J. O. Berg,

Dear Governor:

Today April 30th is my birthday - and I would like to take a pledge to abstain from intoxicating liquors of all kinds in future.

Strong drink has kept me down - and from this day - I want to quit for the balance of my life. I have never committed a crime against life or property - I have only been my own worst enemy.

Cordially and Sincerely,
Lust Hensen

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

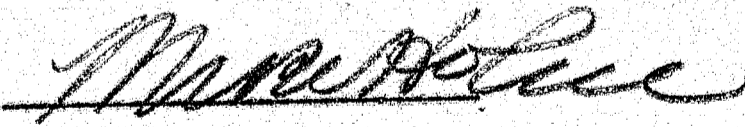

This is to certify that Burt Henson has this day filed in this office his pledge that from this date he will abstain from intoxicating liquors of all kinds.

We congratulate him upon this step and hope that he will not only have the strength and courage on his own part, but also the co-operation of all his fellows necessary to fully pursue this good resolution.
