Re: Appointment of Special Attorneys for EEOC Litigation Pilot Program

Dear Warren:

The Department of Human Rights is developing a litigation pilot program to present to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. The program is designed to persuade EEOC to make funds available to the Human Rights Department to resolve through the Department's administrative hearing process charges which have been filed both with the Department and EEOC. The Department would like to utilize the services of outside attorneys to assist our staff attorneys in this program. Would you be willing to appoint several special attorneys for this purpose? If so, I would appreciate it if you would consider the following people:

Kathleen Graham
Donald Heffernan
Bruce Okney
Delores Orey
~~Charles Williams~~

If you wish information about their qualifications, please get in touch with me. Thank you for your assistance.

Sincerely,

William L. Wilson
Commissioner
