Re: Appointment of Special Attorneys for EEOC Litigation Pilot Program

Dear Warren:

As I indicated to you earlier, the Department of Human Rights developed a program designed to persuade the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission to fund outside attorneys to assist our staff attorneys in reducing the number of cases awaiting hearings before the Department. We have received a grant from the EEOC for this purpose. I would like to delete Mr. Charles Williams from the list which I sent you on May 10. In addition, I would appreciate it if you would consider Mr. Jeffrey Hassan and Mr. Alan Eidsness for appointment as special counsel for this program.

Thank you for your consideration and assistance.

Sincerely,

William L. Wilson
Commissioner
