Dear Secretary:

At our annual village election held yesterday Dec. 7th, the village placed before the voters under separate ballot the question: Shall the village of Helm issue licenses for the sale of intoxicating liquors within the village. When the ballots on this question were counted and verified to by the elector board there were 24 votes cast "For license" and 20 votes cast "Against License" with one spoiled ballot.

Will you kindly furnish me with the proper blanks so that I can certify the result of the election to you. Thank you.
