

Proclamation

WHEREAS: maintaining the health of the Minnesota worker is the vital function of the Occupational Health Nurse; and

WHEREAS: the presidents of two related occupational health associations live in Minnesota, a unique distinction for our state; and

WHEREAS: they are: Virginia Carlson, R.N., C.O.H.N. (Registered Nurse, Certified Occupational Health Nurse), St. Paul, president of the American Association of Occupational Health Nurses; and Dr. Bruce Douglas, Rochester, president of the American Occupational Medicine Association; and

WHEREAS: the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses was organized ten years ago in 1967, with 30 members, and today has a membership of 195 registered professional nurses; and

WHEREAS: the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses is sponsoring an educational seminar on "Stress and Occupational Health" in cooperation with the Mayo Clinic, on October 13 and 14;

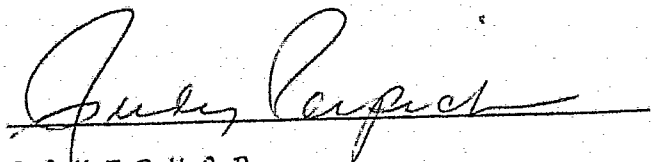

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 10 through October 14, 1977 as in Minnesota, in recognition of the significant contributions the Occupational Health Nurse has made to the well-being of workers in our State.

FURTHERMORE, I commend the Occupational Health Nurse for providing outstanding care and health education, and for maintaining the highest standards of nursing competence in accordance with objectives of the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this twenty-sixth day of September in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-seven and of the State the one hundred twentieth.
