On February 24, 1976, a resolution by the City of Gilbert was received by the Minnesota Municipal Board requesting annexation of certain land to the City of Gilbert. Hearings were held and testimony and exhibits were received. On July 28, 1976, the Minnesota Municipal Board issued an Order annexing certain land to the City of Gilbert and ordering a public election. The public election was duly held on September 14, 1976. The election results were in favor of annexation to the City of Gilbert 856 to 262 and, the annexation was therefore, effective as of August 13, 1976, pursuant to a memorandum issued by the Board dated October 12, 1976. The Board pursuant to a request by the City of Gilbert and after due and careful consideration of the evidence, hereby makes and files the following Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law and Supplemental Order.
