

Proclamation

WHEREAS: maintaining the health of the Minnesota worker is the vital function of the Occupational Health Nurse; and

WHEREAS: Virginia Carlson, R.N., C.O.H.N. (Registered Nurse, Certified Occupational Health Nurse) from St. Paul is president of the American Association of Occupational Health Nurses, Inc. and a member of the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses, Inc.; and

WHEREAS: the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses was organized eleven years ago, in 1967, with 30 members; and today has a membership of 207 registered professional nurses; and

WHEREAS: the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses is sponsoring an educational seminar on "The Nurse and the Disabled Worker" in cooperation with the Sister Kenny Institute, on October 19 and 20;

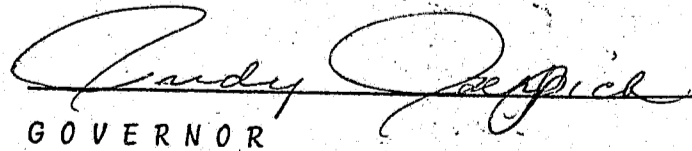

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Rudy Perpich, Governor of the State of Minnesota, do hereby proclaim the week of October 15 through October 21, 1978 to be in Minnesota, in recognition of the significant contributions the Occupational Health Nurse has made to the well-being of workers in our state.

FURTHERMORE, I commend the Occupational Health Nurse for providing outstanding care and health education, and for maintaining the highest standards of nursing competence in accordance with objectives of the Minnesota Association of Occupational Health Nurses.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Minnesota to be affixed at the State Capitol this fifth day of October in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred seventy-eight and of the State the one hundred twentieth.
